SELAMAT DATANG!

Dear IASAS Baseball & Softball participants, coaches and parents

A warm and sincere welcome to the Jakarta Intercultural School campus as our esteemed guests for what promises to be a fabulous IASAS Championship tournament. Baseball and Fastpitch Softball are relatively young sports in IASAS, but without exception they have been supported across the conference with great interest like they have been with us for many years. JIS is very excited to be hosting this year's Championships to be able to do our part in establishing a new legacy.

I would like to thank the amazing team of organizers and helpers at JIS for putting this event together. We have spent many months planning and crafting a tournament that is worthy of the effort and commitment that all players will bring to it. Our entire campus has thrown itself behind the event and we look forward to enjoying the talent on display, celebrating the inspiring performances and camaraderie between the teams, while also building new friendships and connections in the process.

The success of this event will emanate not only from the quality of the individual performances that we will see, but also from the energy, support and spirit of the collective group of participants and participants. You are encouraged to celebrate the sport in true IASAS spirit – one of healthy competition, friendship and mutual respect.

Please don't hesitate to ask for anything you need. I wish you all the very best for tournament and hope you embrace the opportunity to build new friendships and share the love of the game.

Best wishes to all teams and coaches.

Dr. Tarek Razik
Head of School
Jakarta Intercultural school

Local Customs to Keep in Mind

Indonesians dress well, even for just going to the mall. Smart casual is the norm. Dressing modestly is recommended. The left hand can be considered unclean in Indonesian culture and to use it to give or receive items, or to raise it in greeting may be out of place or insulting to the person receiving the gesture. Open displays of anger and displeasure are frowned upon. If you find yourself in a frustrating situation, take a deep breath, smile, excuse yourself (say, "maaf"). Other helpful words and phrases are in the table below:

Please	Silahkan
Thank you	Terima Kasih
Yes	Ya
No	Tidak
How are you?	Apa kabar?
Good-bye	Selamat tinggal (you're leaving)
	Selamat jalan (you're staying)
Have a nice day	Hari baik
Excuse me	Permisi
