Letter from Principal

Dear IASAS Students and Colleagues,

Welcome to the 2014 IASAS Cultural Convention. This will be my second opportunity to attend IASAS debate and forensics, and I look forward to watching you compete as individuals and as teams. Even before the event has begun, I already admire both your passion for public speaking and your keen sense of intellectual curiosity. If there is anything my office can do to help you during your time at Taipei American School, please let me know. I hope that you enjoy your stay in Taipei!

Thank you page...

Thanks to the countless number of individuals within the TAS community who helped to make this event successful due to their generosity of their time, talents and self. The administration supported this event from the start by scheduling it over PD days thus ensuring the necessary facilities were available and teachers would be able to judge. TAS teachers attended training sessions so they could provide fair, accurate and above all helpful feedback for delegates. TAS students were essential in the success of this event by not only providing homes for the visiting delegates, but also students served in the capacity of timers, door guards, and airport guides. The TAS PTA provided an informational booth for all visiting guests and ensured that food vendors would be campus for the delegates during the convention.

A few individuals deserve special recognition:

Thanks to Sherry Liang, the Athletic and Activities Secretary for all transportation arrangement, ordering of needed supplies, her institutional knowledge and being on hand at all times.

Thanks to Aaron Gray for helping to design the certificates and setting up the photo album for the website.

Thanks to Adam Nelson and Rick Brundage for serving as Site Directors for this event, who offered countless hours of support and wisdom.

Thanks to Anthony Ives, Catalina Guzman, Kaity Kao, Natalie Vacirca and Nick Coburn-Palo, the TAS Forensics and Debate coaches who not only prepared their delegates for this event, but also trained the TAS teachers as judges and were instrumental in helping visiting coaches prior and during the duration of the Convention.

Thanks to Claude Su for the countless hours he put in during his free to period to help make materials for this event.

Thanks to Katie Fong for designing the logo for this Cultural Convention.

Thanks to XiaoYang Kao who set up the website and who also aided Tobie Openshaw with the live stream of the finals.
