Mabuhay! Welcome IASAS Athletes, Coaches and Supporters,

It is a great pleasure for International School Manila to host this year's IASAS Basketball Championships. We look forward to an exciting competition and to the friendly interactions and competitive rivalry between all IASAS teams.

I congratulate all team members on the hard work and dedication you have demonstrated to be selected for your school's team. The results of your preparation and efforts to date will be reflected in your individual and teams' performance over the next three days.

I am sure that each team member will have given their best as far as preparation goes and that your bodies are physically ready to perform. In any competition it is often the mental preparation on match day that is so important. Can you be and give your best on that day? That is the question that will be asked of you during the days ahead. My hope is that all of you will be able to find your "best form" and be able to sit at the closing ceremony happy with your individual performances and your contribution to the team.

At ISM we value all the ethics of good sportsmanship. It is important to cheer hard and loud for your own team and also to appreciate the great performances that you will see from your fellow competitors. Genuine congratulations and appreciation of a great sporting effort from individuals on opposing teams is a true reflection of an "athlete".

I would like to give a special thanks to all our ISM families that have volunteered to house the IASAS athletes. Without the generous support from our parent community events like this simply could not happen. I would also like to recognize and give my special thanks to all those that have helped with the planning, organization and running of this IASAS event.

I wish all IASAS players and coaches the very best and hope that you enjoy the 29th Annual IASAS Basketball Championships in Manila 2011.

Yours in Sport,

Mark A. Pekin
Athletic & Activities Director
International School Manila

Mabuhay and welcome to the Philippines.

It is my privilege to welcome our sister IASAS schools, their athletes, coaches, parents and supporters to ISM. The Philippines is always an incredibly friendly place, but when you combine that hospitality with the Pinoy passion for basketball, you create something quite exceptional. We are therefore delighted to host this tournament and to share some of this passion with you over the next few days. I am confident you will have a truly memorable experience.

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly acknowledge the tremendous amount of planning and organization that Mr. Pekin and his ATAC office have done to make this event possible. In addition tournaments such as this only come about through the dedication and hard work of you, the athletes, your coaches and their support staff, and last but by no means least, your parents.

Over the next few days, play hard, have fun, renew old friendships, develop new ones and enjoy the experience of IASAS basketball. When it is all over, when the medals are decided, and you head home, please don't forget to thank those people who have made this happen, especially those most loyal of supporters, your parents!

The best of luck to all teams

William R.S. Brown
HS Principal
