- iv. For a second offense, the student will automatically be excluded for one calendar year from all IASAS events, including the same convention the following year

Out of rotation

At the time of service you must not overlap the person directly next to you.

Begin Service

The official indicates that the server may now serve.

Net violation

The serve or a player touches the net.

Back row attack

Attacking the ball above the net and leaving from in front of the 3 meter line.

Play over

Two thumbs up. A fault by both teams, a serve over or official's inadvertent whistle or mistake.

Sanction card

A yellow card is a warning. A red card is a point. Red and yellow together is an ejection.

Time out

Each team gets two 60 second time outs per game.

Change sides

Between games or halfway through a deciding game.

Over the net

Contacting the ball before it has broken the plane of the net or before the opposition hits it.

Game over

Same for the end of the match.

Understanding the Officials' Hand Signals

In volleyball, there are generally 2 officials. The first referee directs the game from a stand and a second referee stands opposite near the net. A whistle is blown to initiate and to end each play. The official will first signal the fault or cause of the play ending, and then signal which team won the point. This is a summary of hand signals that accompany the whistles.

Out of bounds
Ball is out of bounds, outside antenna or player illegally in adjacent court.

Touch
Ball is out of bounds after contacting a player.

4 contacts
Four fingers up. You only get 3 contacts.

Point
Winner of the rally. One finger raised on the side of the court that won the rally.

Carry
Held, thrown or carried ball. Too much contact time.

Ball in bounds
Pointing to the area of the court where the ball landed.

Double hit
Two fingers up. Ball contacted more than once by a player. The block does not count.
