IASAS
TRACK & FIELD
BANGKOK 2011

APRIL 18-20, 2011

PROUDLY HOSTED BY INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL BANGKOK

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL WELCOME

Dear Athletes, Coaches and Administrators,

On behalf of all of us at ISB, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to you as we prepare to compete in the IASAS Track and Field tournaments. I am confident you will enjoy the competition and the warm hospitality Thailand is known for.

The end of season IASAS tournaments are much anticipated and exciting events for our school communities; and once again the Panthers (ISB & ISKL), Bear Cats (ISM), Dragons (JIS), Eagles (SAS) and Tigers (TAS) have set out to battle each other across our region.

In victory or defeat I know every athlete will experience the whole range of emotions from total elation at a plan that works to perfection or a new personal best and then disappointment with unexpected errors or the narrowness of a loss. Regardless of final placements all athletes and their coaches have completed an arduous journey full of learning – learning that helped you compete and learning that will hopefully serve you well in life too. Some of the learning will seem obvious to you, others may not, for example:

- The true cost of commitment has to be measured in hours of practice, sacrificing other things you might value and struggling with the doubts that it might not be worth it. Being committed to a worthy cause is always worth it and will often be costly.
- Risk taking – You have had to approach unfamiliar situations and uncertainty with courage and forethought, and have the independence of spirit to explore new approaches, ideas and strategies. You are brave in a way that will always serve you well in life and hopefully you are articulate in defending what you know to be worthy, even when others doubt or mock you.
- As a member of a high performing team you have learnt to be caring. You have had to balance your own needs and ego with that of others, you have to show empathy, compassion and respect towards the needs and feelings of others. And hopefully you have seen the amazing power of a team to collectively go beyond the capacities of any one individual.

As ever I would remind you that many young members of our community will look up to you in the next few days – be fantastic role models and inspire them! Please also find the time during the tournament to recognize those who have made this IASAS event possible. Between games, a word of thanks to Andy Vaughan, Harold Albert and their very able staff, your coaches, your hosts, ISB's Booster Club, and the many faculty and parent volunteers will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely
Philip Bradley, HS Principal
